Become a Friend to William O'Brien State Park!

William O'Brien State Park offers visitors a variety of recreational opportunities within an hour's drive of the Twin Cities metro area. Camping, hiking, fishing, and swimming are favorite summer activities. The scenic bluffs of the St. Croix River Valley also help make canoeing a popular pastime.

Exceptional cross-country skiing are winter specialties. Fall leaf colors, spring wildflowers, and bird-watching keep people coming back the rest of the year.

Over 1,600 acres of land including: hardwood forests, oak savanna, river floodplains, prairie and wetlands.*

A Visitor Center, open year-round, with displays on the natural and cultural features of the park. Naturalists are also available year-round to answer questions and share information.*

Two semi-modern campgrounds with 125 sites, 4 group camps available (reservations required), and walk-in sites.*

Eleven miles of hiking trails, 10 miles of cross-country ski trails, and access to a paved county bike trail.*
